

the jimibeat lyrics

born under the sign of love words by c. csillag, music by the jimibeat small and fragile the greatest gift from above a moment of stunning beauty

boundless joy you brought to me emotions melting steel now i'm giving shelter to you no words can express what i feel you're born under the sign of love now discover this new world take my guiding hand

and welcome to your life

your familiar face like i've known you for ages a never-ending circle a book with a million pages sun is shining in my heart when you're searching for a sweet embrace i'm flying oh so high when then tears of joy run down my face
