guess success

words by s. csillag, music by the jimibeat people coming round, all day I hear the sound doc, tell me what to do, do you have a clue? you run and hide, meet darkness and pride can help, or not, brain and feelings a knot step out to be free and dream on with me to live just for rock, and think with your .....

guess, success is what I need and young hearts that bleed for me to be the star of their dark fantasies while you're on vacation, leave the foggy nation join in for beach and for sun, riding waves just having fun but after ten days of staying, you see it's all just betraying real life is crying for you, how to stand it, you don't know

step out to be free and dream on with me
to live just for rock, and think with your .....

in the end you're a lucky young guy, do good work, have money to buy a wife to kiss and friends to hug, and even your health is on luck step to the tiny bed with pride, smile and kiss your daughter good night hop into bed but after a while, on your face there's an evil smile

step out to be free and dream on with me
to live just for rock, and think with your .....

the star of their dark fantasies
