

the jimibeat lyrics

song for honey

words by c. csillag, music by the jimibeat i feel so good today you tear me out of deep blue gray i feel so good today you're pushing me to act so faraway i feel so good today i choose you as my favorite leeway i feel so good today i'm beggin' you to stay is it 'cause of kissing your lips that I feel this way?

with your rays of red
you teach me how to stay or am i just lost in a
sea of bemusing thoughts well, i don't think so feel like flushed by a million volts honey, you broke the silence honey, you broke my fear to miss a thing honey, you woke outta silence don't know how you broke my fear to miss a thing i feel so good today perfect like the paint of claude monet i feel so good today the dreams we had, i will replay i feel so good today you're gorgeous, even on a rainy day

is it 'cause of kissing your lips
that I feel this way?
