

the jimibeat lyrics

stay and play

words by s. csillag, music by the jimibeat slip in blue jeans, cool song in my ear prepairin' for you, wait 'til you appear getting nervous, will this be the night i'll lose my mind in sweet delight shiny brown eyes hypnotize mine sparky shiver goes down my spine stumbelin' gibberish is all I can do when askin' myself can this be true?

stay and play, seize today you do me great, don't hesitate stay and play, don't walk away for your touch I just can't wait looks hard at me, steps through my door takes off her shoes, her coat on my floor offer some wine, hostin' her well i'll lose my mind being under her spell she turns around, a dream I am in her soft soft breeze grazin' my skin she gives me the creeps right from the start what does she feel, stealing my heart

stay and play, seize today ...

confined to you is my soul obsessed you know all things, that I like best angel on earth with the devil eyes your true nature in disguise.

i'm put in chains by her full lips looking away stuck on her hips she just smiles with one step getting near whispering „come on“ into my ear can hardly believe, can this be true is this the night me conquering you a smell of your skin holding my breath your lips touch mine and I confess stay and play, seize today ...
