

the jimibeat lyrics

turn the light on words by c. csillag, music by the jimibeat burst the chains of your depression batter down the walls of doubt free the manic one inside you now it's time, you must get out leave the loneliness behind you smash the fears of your defeat let the manic rule inside you the taste of life, so sweet turn the light on, turn the light on turn the light on, i can't see you nomore

turn the light on, i can't feel you nomore
turn the light on, please lead me to the door.

break your feelings of oppression turn your nightmares into a fairy-tale tell the manic one inside you your avolition's up for sale put yourself out of your misery then switch to the sunny side adore the manic one inside you and sensations of your newborn pride

turn the light on, please lead me to the door.
